

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY – Library Director

Putnam District Library is seeking a motivated, organized, and adaptable individual to become our next Library Director. This person should be excited about community involvement and leading a small team. Strong interpersonal skills and forward thinking are a must for this position, while creativity and initiative are encouraged. This person must also be aware of and willing to honor and respect Intellectual Freedom and the Library Bill of Rights.

Our library is located in Nashville, a rural village with only an hour drive to multiple cities like Lansing, Grand Rapids, and Kalamazoo. As a place where everyone knows their neighbors, delightful patron visits are a daily occurrence. Our community is blessed with a business district that loves to mix things up and make a fun destination out of our small town. Since its creation, they've put together three world record attempts, including MOO-Ville's "World's Longest Ice Cream Sundae", put a large focus on town beautification, and have created opportunities for local businesses and organizations to come together to achieve common goals. Our historical society held an impressive 3-day event for our town's sesquicentennial celebration in 2019. Nashville students attend Maple Valley Schools; with current graduating classes of about 60 students, it means lots of opportunities for kids to flourish in athletics and the art and music programs.

Our modest collection is housed in an 1880s historic home donated to the village by our namesakes, Charles and Agnes Putnam, specifically for the purpose of becoming a library. They donated $10,000 and 300 of their own books to the village, and the Women's Literary Club succeeded in opening our library to the public in 1923. Charles and Agnes' original donated portraits can still be viewed in our front room. We have a ten year millage that is good until 2025, and we are in the beginning stages of planning for our 100 year anniversary in 2023.
